The Center for Automotive Research at Stanford is inviting local groups and companies to present their vehicles that offer different concepts for individual mobility. The event is bringing together the automotive community at Stanford and beyond to discuss non-traditional vehicle concepts and meet the people behind them.

When: Thursday, July 15, 2010; 4:00-6:00PM
- 4:00  Vehicle demonstrations (each team explains their concept incl. Q&A)
- 5:00  Open floor – socializing around the vehicles with food & drinks
- 6:00  End of event

Where: VAIL, 473 Oak Rd (corner of Oak Rd & Stock Farm), Stanford, CA 94305

Please let us know by Monday, July 12 if you will be able to attend this event. RSVP to Adele Tanaka at adelet@stanford.edu or 650.736.4322
